

Removing net neutrality will disadvantage the small businesses that generate innovation and create new jobs. It will allow service providers to control a major and ever growing portion of the public forum and thus damage free speech. Nothing is broken. Do not restrict my ability to access any and all web content without an unnecessary and arbitrary filtering by my internet service provider.